

Programs for Teaching Artists

Artists as Arts Advocates: Building Meaningful Residencies

Donna provides the framework to aid artists in the design of residencies that build on their own strengths and those of their artform to enhance curriculum and life studies in the K-12 classroom.

The Magic Flute: A Model for Community Collaborations

Donna leads artists through the steps of building relationships in the community; locating grants and successful tips for receiving funding; finding the niche that benefits both the artist and the community; and the documentation that helps to ensure future projects.

The Art of the Informance

Donna helps young artists define their most powerful voices and to utilize their interests and strengths on the concert stage.