

What Presenters are saying:

---

Keynote 3rd Annual Service Learning & The Arts Conference 2005

“Elegant, insightful and authentic are words participants used to describe Ms. Wissinger’s keynote presentation. Many felt she provided the spark that enabled participants to garner greater benefits from the conference sessions. Her unique style of music, poetry and eloquent commentary on themes relevant to our conference enlivened our conference.”

Dee Dee Rasmussen, Executive Director Florida Campus Compact

“Uplifting, motivational and inspiring...the audience sat captivated and engaged. Her artistic keynote set the tone for the rest of the conference and I am sure that her performance contributed to its overall success. Donna is a remarkable sentient being.”

Min S. Cho, Florida Learn & Serve

Florida Association of Museums Conference 2005

“Innovative and energizing. She sparked our collective imagination and ignited our creative thought process. Donna captured our attention and sustained it. She is adept at connecting with and involving her audience with a variety of visual, auditory and thought-provoking stimuli. Donna tailored her presentation to reflect relevant issues of our field. I found her keynote entertaining, meaningful and significant to the overall success of the conference.”

Susan Baldino, Chair
FAM Foundation

“We need to do this every year! I was inspired and cannot wait to get back to the museum with my new ideas.”

Participant FAM Conference 2005

“An absolute tour de force!”

Melinda Chavez, Board Member FAM

Tampa Bay Business Committee for the Arts Gala 2005

“Superb! Donna held the audience spellbound and held them in the palm of her hand. This sophisticated audience of corporate and community leaders, who can often be talkative and rambunctious, were absolutely silent and totally enthralled with the performance. Donna’s theme was perfect; what a wonderful introduction that celebrated the mutual benefits that arts and businesses can bring to each other—creativity in the business world and economic successes for cultural enterprises.”

Melinda Chavez, Executive Director TBBCA

Florida Artists and Presenters Network 2005

“An amazing talent. She captured the undivided attention of every individual in the audience. Clearly, she is a visionary; her motivation to excel is evident in her work. Donna’s strong delivery skills make her ideal for any speaking engagement. She is extremely effective.”

Nikki Tucker, Grants Manager Southern Arts Federation

“The audience was rapt. Donna spoke to the heart of us. Donna’s ability to personalize and tailor her words to a particular audience is impressive and further evidence of her attention to detail and her gift of adaptation.”

Gaylen Phillips, Ph. D. Program and Development Manager

VSA arts of Florida Leadership Conference 2005

“Donna opened the door for the conference participants to be fully engaged in the learnings of the conference.

Both keynotes she provided clearly met all outcomes planned for the conference. Through her voice, music and body language Donna completely engaged and enthralled our participants. She reenergized everyone to go back to their schools and programs to work with even greater diligence.”

Marian Winters, Executive Director, VSA arts of FL

“Exceptional. Donna’s poise, grace and ease with her presentation are clear demonstrations of her authenticity. I believe she could weave a presentation for any audience. She captured our imaginations.”

Julia Riley, Constant Source Seminars