If but - ter - cups buzzed af - ter the bee, If boats were on land church - es on sea, If po - nies rode men, And if grass ate the cows, If cats should be chased in - to holes by the mouse, If the mam - mas sold their ba - bies to gyp - sies for half a crown, If sum - mer were spring, and the oth - er way 'round, Then all the world would be up - side down.

If buttercups buzzed after the bee,
If boats were on land and churches on sea,
If ponies rode men,
And if grass ate the cows, If cats should be chased into holes by the mouse,
If the mammas sold their babies to the gypsies for half a crown,
If summer were spring, and the other way
'round,
Then all the world would be upside down.
