To whom it may concern:

I am writing on behalf of Donna Wissinger. She performed at our Rosenthal Next Generation Theatre Series on February 2nd, 2013. This series is aimed towards a wide range of children and adults and is very unpredictable. The performance space provides many challenges including lack of space, lighting and poor acoustics. Needless to say, performing in this series is a challenge. Ms. Wissinger took on this challenge head on, and gave a marvelous performance that delighted both children and adults alike.

Ms. Wissinger's performances are both unique and captivating. She blends storytelling and music in a most beautiful way. She engages her audience right from the beginning with her friendly and warm presence. My favorite part of her performance was the inclusion of the children on stage. She is the only performer I have ever seen who is able to include every child (and adult!) who would like to play a role in the story. She brings the audience together in a way that I have not seen previously on our stage. It truly cultivated a feeling of community and togetherness that only a gifted storyteller can create.

Ms. Wissinger is a true gift to any audience she steps in front of. At the Playhouse we were very grateful that she chose to share her talents with us. I can highly recommend her for anyone looking for a fantastic storytelling experience. It is with full confidence that I can say she will deliver that, and more. If you have any questions about our experience with Ms. Wissinger, please feel free to contact me. I can be reached via e-mail at Terah.Herman@cincyplay.com.
