Magical Story Bag

Stories can answer the questions our imaginations ask!

The following to be used in review of the program

K-2

- What makes the Pied Piper ped? (Pied means many colors)
- What is a prop?
- What do we do when we mime?

Grade 2

- How many states are in the United States?
- Is the story of Johnny Appleseed a myth or legend?
- Is the story of Pan and Syrinx a myth or legend? Why?

- The Pied Piper
-  The rats followed the Pied Piper to the river

Stories and Reading are magical!
Every story needs my imagination!

- The flute belongs to the woodwind family.
- The rainstick is in the percussion family.

- In my imagination I can be anything I want to be.
- In my imagination I can go anywhere I want to go.

Music has Rhythm.

Human bodies have rhythm too.

The story of the Pan Pipes is a myth. The story helps to explain how a flute is played.

We can use stories and science

to help us understand how all instruments make their sounds!

A large instrument can make very low sounds.

A small instrument can make very high sounds.

We can use math to help us understand many new things!

Can you count in more languages than one?

“Donna’s Pied Piper was simply wonderful. This is a child friendly, fast-paced program that works for all ages. Our children soaked in every moment.”
